

Mama Lombardy & Mama OBrien Cook Together

Mama Lombardy and Mama OBrien met back in 1983. Who knew they would have so much in common: both young wives and mothers, both Catholic (sort of), both from big families and most of all both had a love of cooking for their families. And, not just any cooking, it had to be tasty, easy and not a ton of ingredients. Mama Lombardy and Mama OBrien learned from each other. Mama Lombardy taught Mama OBrien how to cook Italian and Mama OBrien taught Mama Lombardy how to bake beautiful cookies, and the list goes on... As the years passed, they had 7 kids between them, they had miscarriages, they had illnesses, they had deaths in their families, and they had disagreements and even fights too... But mostly they had fun. They had (have) great husbands, and kids that still make them laugh. They played together, went on vacation together, ate at each others houses, watched their kids at football, baseball, softball, volleyball, soccer, etc. Mostly they grew older together.
