

Born into poverty as a child of a sharecropping family, Bill York learned throughout his early years the value of hard work, obtaining an education, and instilling Christian values into his daily life. In a delightfully refreshing and revealing tone, Bill shares principles that brought him out of poverty and low self esteem into a full, rich, and rewarding life. With much diligence over the years, this combination brought him success in his marriage, raising his family, pursuing business interests to a high level of success, and turning what started out as a hobby for his family into a thriving automobile renovation and restoration adventure. Bill's early love of automobiles included his first car, a 1951 Ford Custom Deluxe which he poured his heart into customizing. As his fascination with cars grew, he found himself appreciating the aesthetics of the early 30's automobiles, eventually gravitating to collecting and restoring 1933 Chryslers. This book will inspire readers not only with the stunning photos of York's car collection and breathtaking home, but how to overcome what seems to be insurmountable odds. Readers will discover that they can build the confidence needed in their daily lives to realize that though their circumstances and dreams may be different than those of the author, that by using the same principles they, too, can truly make theirs A Life Worth Living!
