

Adrians Walk: Roughin It in the Peaks

Adrians Walk is an energising and energetic celebration of Britains most popular outdoor pastime. ?1 from every sale of the guide will be donated to The Edale Mountain rescue Team. The route takes you from the meandering and peaceful country lanes of the White Peaks; to single dirt tracks and strenuous uphill slogs in the Dark Peaks. The rewards are the exhilarating views and the feeling of absolute accomplishment. My life what a walk, what a mini adventure were about to go on, what a training session for the Pennine Way - Adrians Walk to Hadrians Wall. If you like hiking, like taking photos, if you like discovering whats around you whilst youre walking, then youre going to love this little guide and youre also going to love this 3 day 58 mile hike obviously you can take longer. As the title suggests its about roughin it in the Peaks. However during the walk/guide the author points out camp sites (with facilities), hotels, pubs with or without rooms, youth hostels and of course the all-important public toilets! So its up to you how much roughin it you want to do. As you will see from Adrians kit list at the back of the guide hes carrying his tent, stove, and sleeping bag. So his plan is to stop when hes tired, pitch his tent and sleep where he drops, taking only photos and leaving nothing behind but footprints. Adrian hopes you enjoy the walk as much as he did and remember youre not wandering aimlessly like a cloud. Youre off on an awesome 58 mile (93 Kilometer sounds better) hike from Bakewell to Edale via some of the toughest terrain and most picturesque scenery in the Peaks and reward yourself with a pint or three at the end!!
