

Moments That Matter is an essay series which provides short Bible-based answers to the important spiritual questions in peoples lives. Finding the right church to call home can be a challenging experience. Each one seems to have a different idea about what makes a believer a part of their church. Some churches have an open-door of membership allows people to pass through without any notice at all. Other churches require some ritual, ceremony or other complex process. Does it matter how one becomes a member of a church? Does it matter of which church you are a member? Does it even matter if you are a member of any church? How Do I Become a Member of the Church? takes the best approach one can to answering these questions. It opens up the Bible and seeks to find what God has to say about church membership. It turns out that the One who founded the church does have some things to say about how one can be a part of His spiritual creation. This short survey about church membership will provide you a quick introduction to a sometimes confusing, but always important Bible question.
