

A glimpse into one mans life of the vast paranormal experiences that began for him and his family at or around the age of three or four in a small village in Ohio. From spirits to Ouija Boards, to crystal balls and past life regression to Voodoo and levitation only to name a few, these true stories will leave you with goosebumps and often times fear. These stories takes the reader on a paranormal adventure with many of them being eerie and scary, and will make one question all reality as they know it. Twenty-seven true stories about paranormal/spiritual encounters that began in the early 1960s and continues through today. I really have nothing to compare this book to in todays market, so I would call it an original. This book is intriguing from beginning to end and is easy to read and digest at any age level.
