

Ethics and Spirituality: An Activity Book

Saint Paul declares, Live by the Spirit (Gal 5:6). This means our way of living ought to be guided by the Holy Spirit. Through a series of theoretical reflections, questions, and directed activities, this activity book will help you understand the relationship between spirituality and ethics, provide you some theoretical tools and practices for doing ethics and living spiritually, and encourage you to clarify your own manner of approaching ethical questions, founding moral values, and theological positions that undergird ethics and spirituality. Your moral imagination will be stimulated. Have fun! Roy H. May Jr. provides us a profound book on the intersection of ethics and spirituality, which is made accessible so all can live purposely, constructively, and joyfully. His book leads us down a path where a deeper understanding can be uncovered concerning our relationship with God and our fellow sojourners on the road toward justice. May gifts us with a how-to book on drawing nearer to a more liberating existence. Miguel de la Torre, Professor of Social Ethics, Iliff School of Theology What a breath of fresh air it is to learn from Roy May that spirituality and ethics are fundamentally about building convivial community! His deeply communal yet clearly personal approach to ethics and spirituality express a welcome and wise word. He offers exercises for personal or group use that are quite concrete and significantly connected to today's issues and concerns. Accessibly written, this book will be helpful for small groups, adult classes, and retreat settings. Tex Sample, Emeritus Professor of Ethics, Church, and Society, Saint Paul School of Theology Roy H. May Jr. is a retired minister and missionary of the United Methodist Church. For many years he was professor of theology and ethics at the Latin American Biblical University in San Jose, Costa Rica, where he resides. He is the author of The Poor of the Land (1991)
