

Cries in the Night: Women Who Challenged the Holocaust

Cries in the Night is the story of seven Catholic women who defied Hitler and the Nazis during the Holocaust by saving Jews. Phayer and Fleischner show that these women, motivated by compassion and a sense of justice, to be sure, also strongly desired that their church take up the cause of the Jews during the Holocaust. These women believed that the true mission of the Church lay not in preserving the Church's external structure and buildings, but in defending the oppressed.
