

Get What You Want!: Workbook to Reactivate Your Passion for Life, Find Your Purpose and Achieve Your Dreams (Better Grip Guides 1)

I woke up one morning four years ago, stumbled into the bathroom and looked in the mirror. The person staring back at me was a shocking sight. He was an old guy with a grey beard. What happened to the young man who once inhabited that mirror? I suddenly realized he was gone. He wasn't young anymore. He was now much older. And he was me. I felt like an actor in a TV commercial for men's hair and beard coloring. It wasn't just my grey hair and beard. It went deeper than that. I felt old. It was as if my life flashed past in a blur. The things I had done or not done were now in the past. I was suddenly 62-years old. Where did the time go? Why didn't someone warn me about this? If there was ever a candidate for reinvention, I was it. But how? Was it too late to regain my youth? Yes. Was it too late to regain my youthful outlook on life? No! Despite my age, I still had a youthful way of looking at things except myself. I couldn't hide it any longer. I was an older person, but so what? I began, from that day on, asking myself questions. What do I want to do with the rest of my life? How much time do I have left? Would I keep my health long enough to enjoy it? What was the point of all this? What did I want? Why did I want it? And, what was I going to do to get it? It was then that I began to write Get What You Want. Originally, I wrote it for myself, as I tried to cope with the reality of my mortality. I had learned things in my 62 years. But, knowing things was not enough. It's what you do with what you know that makes a difference. I soldiered on with my book. The results, dear reader, follow. I discovered what you have to do to be young again in spirit! You have to know what you want and go after it! Get What You Want! is a book about YOU.
