

It is our belief that every action in life is one of ritual, from doing the dishes, to washing clothes, to going to work or even walking our dogs. Looking at each action as a ritual brings a cleaner and more loving energy into it. Add to that a dedication that whatever one is doing, you are also doing on behalf of someone else or the world at large, gives it even more powerful energy. Along with the rituals that we are guided to do with clients, we also share with them what we feel is the “glue” that holds those rituals, ceremonies or intentions together. That glue that we are speaking of is gratitude! When we can be grateful for whomever or whatever is in our lives, that gratitude shifts any situation into greater possibility. Have you ever noticed that when you are grateful for something, you feel lighter? Have you ever noticed that when you are not grateful you feel heavier? Now here is our question for you; which would you rather feel – lighter or heavier? We are trusting you said lighter, yes? Good, then this little book will help you to immensely feel lighter!
