

Paint World

In this novel of over 150,000 words Paint World is a place where your talent comes to life. If you can draw it you can walk right into it. If you can think of baking it, you can truly taste it. Three brothers discover they have talents that take them to Paint World where they find out vampires and werewolves really do exist. There are good witches and bad wizards and a Canvasser that watches over it all. William has to go hand to hand with a dragon while his brothers have to learn to trust a vampire. Together they fight an old foe, a ghost of an enemy from their parents past, and battle unseen powers to keep their family alive. How will Gabriel and Drakes catering business help to save their family? How will Tempest, the descendent of Dracula, help to save their family? How will William lead them all to their destinies? What sacrifices will be made? Will everyone survive?
