

The Geography of Faith: Underground Conversations on Religious , Political & Social Change (Paperback) - Common

More than thirty years ago, at the height of U.S. involvement in Vietnam, Father Daniel Berrigan, a Jesuit priest, was wanted by the FBI. He hid in the house of Robert Coles, who would later win the Pulitzer Prize. Their conversations would encompass a fascinating range of topics: violence, social institutions, compassion, activism, family life -- all in the context of the authors shared faith, b...
