

A romantic, fantasy short story novella (approx. 9000 words), age 15 plus Walking through the mall doing her Christmas shopping, Freya comes upon an enchanting Christmas shop and feels compelled to go in. Funnily enough, the crowds of Christmas shoppers have disappeared and she is the only person in the shop. In the shop, Freya spots an adorable Scandinavian figurine, a nisse, that the kindly shopkeeper wraps up for her. Upon leaving the shop, Freya realizes that the shopkeeper had used her name when speaking to her. Even more unusual, when Freya turns around to have a last look at the shop, it is empty with a 'Going out of Business' sign on it. When Freya gets home, she puts the nisse on her bookshelf. Nodding off, an adventure begins, in which Freya is not sure whether she is dreaming or not.
